

quest communications charges $7.35 for a 15 minute phone call. I think it is ridiculous to be able to take advantage of customers and the facilities that use the service. My phone charges are averaging $500.00 a month coming from a correctional facility. I have no choice but to use this company, because i have no other means of communication with my husband.